

GRUPO SPORTS WORLD ANNOUNCES THE REOPENING OF 9 OF ITS CLUBS

Mexico City, July 15, 2020 – Grupo Sports World, S.A.B. de C.V. (“Sports World”, “SW”, “the Company”, or “the Group”) (BMV: SPORT) (BIVA: SPORT), the leading operator of family fitness clubs in Mexico, announces the reopening of 9 of its clubs in accordance with the regulations issued by the competent authorities: SW Bernardo Quintana, SW Juriquilla, SW Esfera, these 3 in Querétaro state; SW La Rioja, SW Puerta de Hierro, both in Jalisco state; SW Torreón and SW Saltillo in Coahuila; SW Veracruz and SW Aguascalientes. These clubs have been closed since the end of March as a result of the health emergency generated by COVID-19.

These reopens occur with high sanitary standards and protocols for both collaborators and clients to promote a clean and safe environment, taking care of even the smallest detail, which were prepared based on the recommendations of the World Health Organization (WHO), the guidelines issued by the Mexican authorities, Federal and State, and the experience observed in other countries.

Seeking always the health care of our clients and collaborators, the restart of activities in these clubs occurs with a controlled capacity according to the guidelines established by authorities. Customers can reserve their access to the club through the new version of the SW APP, in the schedule menu, where you can also find more than 100 recorded classes for virtual training, training routines, follow-up by trainers, online store and more than 30 live classes by day on 4 simultaneous channels.

For more details about the protocols implemented by the Company, please consult the following link: SW reopening security measure.

We will continue paying attention to the evolution of the current situation, also to the provisions and recommendations of the authorities regarding the restart of activities in other States, that will be communicated in a timely manner.
